

Cable Management Channels

NEW!

This is the simplest solution for creating a perfectly clean installation. Easily hide cables and cords and blend the cable management channel into the mounting surface with color choices of silver, black or versatile white that is easily paintable to any desired color. This cable management system comes with everything needed for the perfect installation, including a 90°-angle corner connector for directing cables.

End caps cover edges for a clean, installation look

90° corner connector to route in either direction if outlet is offset to the left or right of screen
